Note

1. I wd for the present stop this list with No. 9 - we can add to it hereafter if necessary. Please see the alterations I have made in the Draft which have the effect of keeping the Codal Rule separate from the order of 1892

2. The list given in order of 1st Nov 1891 does not by any means exhaust the higher appts in the State. That list was intended to give to the members of the new Civil Service a claim to certain high appointments really

3. We are now sanctioning a higher rate of pension for the higher appointments of the Service - And the reference to the "Civil Service" in the new Rule is merely a matter of Convenience of Language.

4. I wd Omit Ramachandra Iyer's name from the Appendix - of Cases he would not practically come under Art. 312 A, for he will not serve 25 yrs to come under it - What we mean to indicate is that a Ch. Ct. Judge who is entitled to earn the higher rate of pension

5. Again as regards Ramachandra Iyer, the exception now intended under Art. 320 is based upon the Govt Order of 1884 - That order contemplated giving him the then maximum pension of Rs5000 after 12 yrs - Service - Now that we are raising the maximum to Rs 6000, we shd in reason give him the benefit of this liberality. I wd also suggest that in the amended Article 320, Substitute the following:

for Secretaries in the Secretariat
1 V. Secretaries in the Board of Revenue
5 Others drawing pay of Rs. 4,000 or more
